

I call on your name

There have been mountains that I've tried to climb alone
And there have been valleys where I couldn't see the sun.
Like a ship on the ocean without a guiding light
Was lost and discouraged, with no hope in sight.

In the middle of darkness, in the center of a storm, I know there's a name that I can call.
And I call on your name, call on your name, Jesus my friend, I call on your name.
You understand, Lord, take my hand, lead ev'ry step that I take
