

I will lift up my hands

God, he has been good to me
Given me all I need
Once I was blind and lost but now I see

God, gave me a second chance,
Gave me a brand new start
Once I was bound and lost but now I dance

I will lift up my hands, I will sing I will dance,
I will praise God for all He has done.
I will never let go, I will never say no,
I will never stop praising God with my song.

When I think about ev'rthing He's done for me
Turned my life around broke the chains and set me free
I will lift my hands, I will sing and I will dance,
God has been good to me
