

Rejoice forever, forever in His Love

1.. When our mind is on Him our songs we will sing, when our heart is in Him our praises will ring.
Then our lips will proclaim.
Rejoice forever in His love.

2. Though the hills may tremble and finally fall.
Though the sun may darken and not shine at all.
There is power I want to proclaim,
a power much higher, high in His name.

3. He once made the hills and He set the sun,
so I lean on Him, through whom life begun.
He is my refuge my fortress is He.
Through all of life's storms, my beacon He'll be.

4. My heart may be weary, too much is the stress. My body be weak I fought none the less.
But hope is rekindled when I look to you.
And I see your face, your love shining through.
