

Spend some time with God let Him love you
Let yourself be loved for who you are

Have you ever looked at someone wishing that was you?
Have you ever felt that you're not good enough?
Do you look for comfort in your TVscreen?
Your Internet community or magazines?
Only God know who you are only God

Have you ever cursed the mirror for what you see?
Have you ever felt that love is not there for you?
Are you ever tired of this masquerade?
Lose the mask and God will love you anyway
Only God know who you are only God
